The Legislature of Missouri should be asked to repeal the vagrant law at once. The law, as it now stands, is THE vicious, intolerable, outrageous, and should have been stricken from the statute books long ago. The whipping post has been abolished, slavery is a thing of the past and has no advocates to-day, still we have on our statute books a law authorizing

When enforced the barbarity of this law is easily understood and we think the people of Mexico should take concerted action in this matter and call the attention of the Legislature to this abominable law before it adjourns. Vagrancy must be legislated against, but in order to result in any good a new law in reference to this matter should be made. In this system of slavery there is every chance for abuse and cruelty.
